UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

HONOR MAGNIFICENT-EL,
Defendant.

No. 2:15-CR-0129-WFN-1

ORDER ON ALLEGED VIOLATION
OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

A supervised release revocation hearing was held September 13, 2022. The Defendant, who is not in custody, was present and represented by Colin Prince; Assistant United States Attorney Michael Ellis represented the Government; United States Probation Officer Corey McCain was also present.

The Court scheduled the hearing to review a report from the United States Probation Office alleging that Mr. Magnificent-El violated his conditions of supervised release. The Government argued Defendant violated his conditions of supervised release by changing his residence without prior approval from Probation. Defendant argued that he had merely stayed at a friend's house for a few days and that his conduct was not a violation of his conditions of supervised release. The Government does not request any sanction for the alleged violation. The Court reminded Mr. Magnificent-El that he was required to notify his probation officer of his residence, and Defendant confirmed that he understood that obligation.

The Court has reviewed the file and is fully informed. This Order is entered to memorialize and supplement the oral rulings of the Court. Accordingly,
